DON'T WORK ! DEAR.

Don't worry, dear; the bleakest yours.
That elog the forward view Each Prize to nothing when it nears.

And we may saunter through.
The darkest moment never comes,
It only looms before;
The loss of hope is what benumbs,
Not trouble at the door.

Don't worry, dear; the clouds are black,

But with them comes the rain,
And stiffed souls that parch and crack
May thrill with sap again.
The burden bear as best we can,
And there'll be none to bear;
Hard work has never killed a man,
But work did its cheese

But worry did its share.

Don't worry, dear; don't blanch, don't yield,
But dare the years to come;
Nor give the enemy the field
Because he beats his druit.

These little wees that hover near
Are nothing, though they gall;
We know that life is love my dear,
And life and love are all.
